

Accessibility

We have built this website so the content is easy to use for as many people as possible regardless of their disability or impairment. Although we have taken steps to make this site accessible we would still welcome your comments on how we can improve it. You can give us feedback by sending an email to info@otley-online.co.uk

Text size

You can view this site using the standard text size or you can choose to make the text larger (or smaller) by changing the text size option in your web browser. In Internet Explorer and Firefox this option is under the View menu on the toolbar.

Standards compliance

The World Wide Web Consortium (W3C) is an organisation that employs experts who know how to make websites more accessible or easier to use. The W3C experts have written a number of standards or guides to help website developers ensure that the sites they are building are accessible to as many people as possible. The pages on this website have been built to AA standard, complying with all priority one and two guidelines of the W3C web content accessibility guidelines.

Your comments

We are always trying to improve <http://www.otley-online.co.uk>. If you have any comments on our accessibility policy, or suggestions for how to improve the site please contact us via email:
