

Leeds City Council Racket Sports Development Officer, and junior national coach, Brian Wallwork will be coming to Prince Henry's School, Otley in September, to run two coaching courses.

These will take place on Monday the 7th September, (When Brian will host the course himself) and Monday 21st September when a colleague of his from The Leeds City Council Racket Development squad will take the course, both courses will start at 7:30pm.

If you can't make those dates, but you are still interested in playing at Otley Badminton Club, why not come along to one of our sessions in Otley from September onwards, Monday 7:30-9:30 or Friday 7:00-9:00pm.

Brian is the father of 21 year old Jenny Wallwork (Who he coached when she was a junior) who is a world class badminton player.

Brian is no stranger to success himself, having won many trophies on the seniors badminton Circuit, and recently having won the Men's singles and Mixed doubles titles in Seville, Spain.

Otley badminton Club are hosting these courses in an effort to get youth & potential new members interested in our Sport, but it is very important to book if you are interested in taking part, and bookings can only be made by sending an e-mail to

info@otleybadmintonclub.co.uk

for the attention of Steve Norfolk

Steve Norfolk
Hon Press & Publicity Officer